Before I trust my face to thee, Or place my hand in thine Before I let thy future give Color and form to mine; Before I peril all to thee.

A shadow of regret; Is there one link within the past

Or is thy faith as clear and free As that which I can pledge to thee? Does there within thy dimest dreams A possible future shine, Wherein thy life could henceforth breather Untouched, unshared by mine?

O, tell before all is lost! That thou hast kept a portion back. While I have staked the whole;

Is there within thy heart a need That mine cannot fulfill? One cord that another hand Could better work or still? Speak now-least at some future day My whole life wither and decay

Shedding a passing glory still On all things new and strange It may not be thy fault alone--But shield thy heart against thy own Could'st thou withdraw thy hand one day

Nay, answer not; I dare not hear! The words would come too late; Yet I would spare thee all romoraeso comfort thee my fate!
